PREFACE.

The present Volume contains the entries in the first five books of the Registers of Rothwell, extending from the year 1538 to the year 1689. The leaves of the first and fourth books are paper, and the leaves of the other books are parchment. In the first book the leaves have been bound without regard to their order in date. The printed pages appear in the original Register in the following order:—pp. 1 to 15; p. 25, line 3, to p. 26, line 16; p. 16, line 1, to p. 17, line 27; p. 23, line 48, to p. 25, line 2; p. 26, line 17, to p. 30, line 4; p. 34, line 32, to p. 37, line 9; p. 30, line 5, to p. 32, line 19; p. 17, line 28, to p. 19, line 4; p. 38, line 16, to p. 39, line 18; p. 19, line 5, to p. 23, line 47; p. 37, line 10, to p. 38, line 15; p. 32, line 20, to p. 34, line 31; p. 39, line 19, to the end p. 40. The order, according to date, of the pages in the original Register is pp. 1–60, 63–66*a*, 83–84, 87–102, 66*b*–67, 60–62, 68–74, 79–82, 105–108, 75–78, 103–104, 85–86, 109–110. The Registers from 1635 to 1643 are contained in both the third and fourth books.

The ancient parish of Rothwell lies between the cities of Leeds and Wakefield, and consists of the townships of Rothwell, Carlton-with-Lofthouse, Middleton, Oulton-with-Woodlesford, and Thorpe. The Church is dedicated to the Holy Trinity. Rothwell was one of the manors of the Lacy family, and dependent on the Castle of Pontefract. Rothwell Haigh, or Hay, was their park. There are the remains of a manor house near the church, and a market cross in the main street. The gaol mentioned in the Registers was used for the imprisonment of debtors until 1846. Rothwell is described by Dr. Whitaker in Loidis and Elmete, 1816, p. 241; by W. S. Banks, in his Walks about Wakefield, 1871; and by John Batty, in his History of Rothwell, 1877.

The most interesting entries in the Registers are probably the baptism and burial of John Hopkinson [1612–1681] the antiquary, and the baptism of Richard Bentley, D.D. [1662–1742], scholar and critic, notices of both of whom appear in the Dictionary of National Biography. The families whose pedigrees were registered at the Herald's Visitations of Yorkshire are:—Leigh, of Middleton, in Glover's Visitation, 1584–5; Gascoigne, of Thorp on the Hill, in St. George's Visitation, 1612; Forster of Rothwell, Hopkinson of Lofthouse, and Ingram of Thorpe on the Hill, in Dugdale's Visitation, 1665–6.

It is intended that an Index shall be added when the Register has been printed to 1812.

The printed Register has been carefully examined with the original books, and the illiterate spelling has been reproduced.

The Editor desires to acknowledge the facilities for transcription and collation most willingly given to him by the Rev. W. B. Pierson, the Vicar, to whom the thanks of the Society are due for kindly allowing the Register to be printed.
